Marks 100

2022

To be given to candidates six weeks (not to include holidays) before the examination period to allow for preparation.

INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION TO CANDIDATES

- Write your Centre Number, Candidate Number, Name and Question Number on the label provided and attach this to the top right-hand corner of the front of each sheet of paper.
- Candidates may use any discipline to resolve their chosen question.
- Choose one question. Record, analyse and develop your ideas.
- In addition to the examination piece, up to three A2 sheets (6 sides) of supporting studies should be submitted. These should be the sheets of preparatory work undertaken in the six weeks before the examination period and will show the developing studies for the final piece. The submission will be assessed as a whole.
- At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together at the top left hand corner of each sheet.
- All questions in this paper carry equal marks.
- Plagiarism is presenting someone else's work or ideas (words or creations) as your own, with or without their consent, by incorporating it into your work without full acknowledgement. All published and unpublished material, whether in manuscript, printed, art or electronic form, is covered under this definition. Under the regulations for examinations, intentional or reckless plagiarism is a disciplinary offence.
- The examiners must be in no doubt as to which parts of your work are your own original work. Your sources must be accurately referenced.

This document consists of 2 printed pages.
